The Football Picks section lists all matches where the system analysis of form has identified that the home team is likely to drop points, i.e. it will be an away win or a draw.

The list of picks is updated up to five times a week, depending on how the fixtures fall and the list also serves as the archive of all previous matches that have appeared in the picks and is therefore fully searchable. Indications of current form are given by the 3-star rating system—these ratings are given for overall form (over the course of the whole season) and recent form (for the last 5 games, for example).

SX2 Competitions

Beat the Bookie

The fortnightly free-to-enter correct score competition—open to non-subscribers

Every fortnight 6 matches (taken from that weeks SX2 picks) are made available for you to predict the correct score and win prizes. This competition is open to non-subscribers as well. NB Changes cannot be made once your predictions have been submitted.

NAPS Competitions

Once a week you have to choose 2 matches from 10 and predict either a home win, a draw or an away win.

Running almost all year round, the NAPS competitions (Bronze, Silver & Gold) present subscribers with 2 lists (5 matches in each). Players have to pick 1 match from each list and decide if they will be a home win, a draw or an away win. They must then decide if they want to place 2 single bets (each for a nominal £1 bet) or a double. Whatever “virtual” returns they would have won are then credited to their cumulative score for the current competition.

For single bets a “virtual” £1 will be deducted for each bet if they lose, for doubles only one “virtual” £1 will be deducted if the bet loses. The Bronze competition lasts for 4 weeks at a time, four times a year. The Silver competition lasts for 8 weeks at a time, four times a year. The Gold competition lasts for 48 weeks and combines all predictions from the Bronze and Silver competitions. As with the ‘Beat the Bookie’ competition, submissions cannot be edited. The NAPS competitions are for subscribed members only and carry cash prizes.
